

Neural Networks for Data Science

Master's Degree in Data Science

Lecture 4: Fully-connected neural networks

Lecturer: S. Scardapane

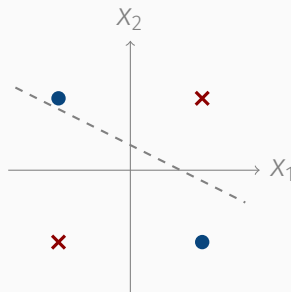

SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA

For binary classification, a linear model separates the two classes using:

$$\mathbf{w}^T \mathbf{x} + b = 0.$$

Such a linear boundary can only separate relatively simple datasets.

Can we learn a representation of the data where a linear model is sufficient?

A simple non-linearly separable dataset (XOR).